

I truly cannot understand how can everything be thrown away, stifled so carelessly suppressed with such meticulous detail

For what?
Does it not lead to increasing suffering in the end?
It is unfathomable
Those who DESIRE to relish in that suffering

Those who choose not to End up suffering the most Why are we not allowed to decide....

why are WE not permitted to salvage, to express vehemently to implode with the brightest of images
There is no justification..
Nor is there a fleeting wish..
